

Darren Lawrence Tutt Sr.

Bio:

I am a college graduate of Virginia state University with a bachelors' degree in Information Systems and Decisions Sciences, a veteran of the United States Air Force and a radio personality for the past 19 years. I currently reside in Collington and love the environment and the people.

Reason(s) for serving on the Board:

I am married with two children and would love to serve my community by representing them on the board.